Subject — Combined leave (Privilege leave for 2 months and 19 days from 2nd June '03 and thereafter extraordinary leave without allowances for 1 month & 10 days up to the 30th September 1903) to Miss J. L. Palethorpe, Lady Supdt, Maharani's College, Mysore

Note First the Lady Supdt wanted to take 2 months & 19 days privilege leave in continuation of vacation she being a Educational Officer enjoying periodical vacations, the combination of Privelege leave with vacation prayed for by her was not granted (vide the papers and the office note placed below)

She now wants combined Leave (Privelege Leave for 2 months and 19 days from the 2nd June and thereafter Extraordinary Leave without allowances up to 30th Septr

(8) The D.G. of Education recommends the grant of the combined Leave asked for under G.O No. 1983-2022 P+A 154 dated the 30th July 1902 A

It is respectfully submitted that this order does not refer to the grant of combined Leave (whether of privilege with furlough, or Leave on medical certificate etc etc) to E.D.C. officers It only refers, in the case of the E.D.C. officers, to the combination of vacation with furlough etc etc

If it is doubtful whether the combined Leave asked for may be granted under the G.O quoted Extraordinary Leave, without allowance under Art. 221 of the Mysore Service Regulations may be granted only in special circumstances and it should not be granted in combination with the grant of other leave. The special circumstances should not be anticipated

Submitted for orders

KEC 4-4-03

The candidate asks for privilege leave for 4 months & 19 days combined with casual leave without allowance for about 1 month & 10 days. The combined leave being for 3 months & 29 days. A careful perusal of the Fo S 30/7/02 shows that clauses I & VII apply to officers who do not enjoy vacation & that clause VIII extends the above benefits under certain restrictions to officers who enjoy vacation under clause VIII an educational officer can combine vacation with privilege leave but not with privilege leave & the combined leave must be for not less than 6 months under clause VI. It is not clear why the D.S of Edn should submit applications which are prima facie not covered by the (10)

Rules unless it be that the rules are not easily understood

The Comptroller's reply has been received today (vide his letter No. 6066 dated the 28th April, 1903) There is no need for any D.O. to issue

He says, that privilege may be combined with extraordinary leave without allowances under Art 165 + (iii) which is an addendum made after the GO No. 1983-2022/P&A 154 d 30.7.1902

It has already been noted that E&C officers can combine only vacation with long leave and not privilege leave with long leave as other officers could do -

(May I request that Sanction may be telegraphed to Miss P?)

Reading articles 165A and 208A of my letter, it seems to me that Miss Palethorpe can combine privilege leave with extraordinary leave, provided the combined period is not less than 6 months. In the present case however that period is less than 6 months. I must therefore take it that this articles cannot, if strictly interpreted, apply.

Under article 221 Romeus Miss Palethorpe may in case of absolute necessity be granted extraordinary ~~leave~~ leave without allowances in consideration of ~~any~~ other kinds of leave Privilege leave included. This is exactly what the new article for. Instead of absolutely denying Privilege leave the foresees the difficulty of returning at the end of that leave and therefore applies for extraordinary leave before taking Privilege leave - considering that the wishes to go home & her return to duty before the expiry of the Privilege leave involve the highly inconvenient this small informality may be condoned - Miss Palethorpe can go home on Privilege leave & from there apply for extraordinary leave in consideration - Is it really necessary to insist on this formality?

Sanction may as a special case be given - on a former occasion her application was refused on a technical ground but the objection then made is stronger than any present. If the Admiralty think that the rules should be strictly adhered to, the Admiralty cannot, but may, alone be sanctioned, and they do not propose that the Admiralty should grant her an exemption from the rules, but only that in the event of her application from home in case the funds should not be forthcoming at the end of the Admiralty leave — but practically come to the same thing —

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that Miss Palethorpe, Lady Superintendent of the Maharani's College reports that she will be in need of privilege leave from 1st June 1903. She will be entitled to about two months and 19 days' privilege leave on the 1st June 1903. She requests that she may as a special case be permitted to enjoy the privilege leave in continuation of the midsummer holidays which begin about the 24th of April. Government have in their Order No. 1983 202 P&A 154 dated 30th July 1902, heading VIII, allowed vacations to be combined with long leave in the case of Educational officers

Printed copy put up

Miss Palethorpe requests that she may be allowed to combine the midsummer vacation of 1903, for which she will draw full pay, with the privilege leave on half pay to which she may be entitled commencing from 1st June 1903, for the reason that by such combination her absence from duty will be shortened by a period of about six weeks of the vacation. I recommend that the concession asked for may be granted. The favour of an early reply is requested

Dear Mr Bhabha,

You recommend the grant of ~~C~~ leave to Miss Palethorpe ~~as above~~ under C O No 1983-2022/P&A 154 dated the 30th July 1902 May I point out that the proposed leave does not fall under the Order quoted For the Order in question only lays down that Educational Officers can combine vacation with Long Leave (the kinds of leave falling under this head are enumerated in the Order) on the same conditions as those on which other Officers can combine Privilege leave The question of combining Privilege leave with Long Leave in the case of Educational Officers enjoying periodical vacations is not contemplated in that Order // The question of now granting extraordinary leave in continuation of Privilege leave clasnes with ~~the spirit of~~ Art 221 of the M S Regns

If vacation can be combined with extraordinary leave under sub section ß viii of para 1 of G O No 1983-2022/P&A 154 dated the 30th July 1902, the period of combined leave should not be less than 6 months

May I request you to inform the Lady Supt. of these ~~Cedal~~ objections to her proposed leave, and let me know whether she wants to take extraordinary leave in continuation of next midsummer vacation which is the only leave admissible to her under the circumstances? Article 165 A(iii) is applicable also to privilege leave granted under Art 203(b) as it is a general rule in which no specific kind of privilege leave is mentioned —

The only restrictions in regard to privilege leave to Educational officers are that they are entitled to only half their salary and that the leave cannot under any circumstances be combined with the vacation. There is no rule prohibiting the combination of such leave with any other leave under Art. 165 A.

Mrs Balletine may be granted under art 208 A Schedule ordinary leave in combination with the vacation provided the the combined period of absence is not less than nine months as req'd by Art. 165 A (11)

Yours sincerely
E Norton

Dear Mr Bhabha,

I enclose herewith G.O No 16061-2 Ed 447 dt 13th May 03 granting only 2 months & 20 days privilege leave to Miss G. Palethorpe, Lady supdt, Maharanis College. You will find from it that the request of Miss Palethorpe to combine Extraordinary leave for 1 month & 15 days with privilege leave has not been acceded to for the reason is that such combination is, as already pointed out to you, against art 221 of the Mysore Service Regulations. I however am willing ~~to~~ to grant the Miss Palethorpe Extraordinary leave without allowances for 1 month & 15 days, if, after going to England she finds that Such a leave as ~~he~~ he necessary and applies for it from there. You may inform the Lady superintendent accordingly

Yours sincerely
